1887

This is the last season to be recorded in King's Annual and this shows that while Keith Franklin claimed a win by 1 run the R.H.S. claimed a win by exactly the opposite sum. Apparently there was some bickering over a boundary that was not recorded. I have accepted the score as given in the Scotsman and recorded this as a loss.

The Ayr match is not recorded in the Scotsman. The Ayr Club supplied the details from the Ayrshire Post, the match having been played on Ayr Low Green. R.H.S. arrived with 8 players and Ayr supplied 3 men. I have nevertheless recorded this as a match on the card. Incidentally the figures supplied for the R.H.S. batting did not add up to the given total.

Nat. Watt's cuttings carry cuttings for the season: Tom Johnston was now playing with Edin. Univ. and his book carries no relevant cuttings.
